Tuesday, April 14, 2026 – Depart 7 AM / Return 10:30 PM

Enjoy a full day of discovery at the National Museum of the U.S. Air Force, the world's largest military aviation museum and a destination filled with fascinating stories, historic aircraft, and remarkable displays. You'll have approximately six hours to explore at your own pace, giving you plenty of time to wander through the galleries, revisit your favorite eras of aviation history, and take in the exhibits that interest you most. During your visit, you'll also have the opportunity to purchase lunch at one of the museum's convenient dining spots. The recently reopened Valkyrie Café offers a comfortable place to enjoy a limited selection of hot items such as sandwiches and pizzas, while the Launchpad Shop N' Snack—overlooking the Cold War Gallery—provides quick grab-and-go choices including cold sandwiches, snacks, and beverages. As part of this specially arranged package, your day also includes a ticket for one of the museum's exciting simulator experiences—your choice of the immersive Movie Ride, the high-energy 360 Interactive Ride, or the state-of-the-art VR Transporter featuring Apollo 11 & Beyond. After our afternoon at the museum, we'll settle in for a relaxing ride home with a stop at Der Dutchman, where a hearty, home-cooked buffet dinner awaits.
