

Victorian Chautauqua

Thursday, June 18, 2026 – Depart 10 AM / Return 8 PM

Experience a step back in time as you visit the Victorian charm of Chautauqua, New York—a lakeside community celebrated for its rich history, peaceful setting, and long-standing tradition of culture, the arts, and lifelong learning. Your day begins with a specially curated lunch at the Athenaeum Hotel, a beautifully preserved Victorian landmark overlooking Chautauqua Lake. Enjoy braised beef tips with mushroom gravy and grilled mahi mahi with lemon-garlic cream sauce, served alongside a variety of sides and desserts, all in an elegant, historic dining room. Following lunch, take a guided tour of the Chautauqua Institution grounds, where tree-lined streets, picturesque gardens, and stately buildings tell the story of a community that has inspired generations. The afternoon concludes with a leisurely cruise aboard the Chautauqua Belle, an authentic sternwheeler gliding across the tranquil waters of the lake. Sit back and enjoy the scenic shoreline and gentle rhythm of the paddlewheel, completing a memorable day filled with history, beauty, and timeless elegance.
